Glothes the Fat Woman Shouldn't Wear

the Realm of the Feminin

BLOUSES AND HATS THAT ARE CONSIDERED PROPER FOR WEAR DURING YOUR OUTINGS the Fat Woman Shouldn't Wear

BULGARIAN BLOUSE.

NICS, excursions and outollifications of various kinds have not been elimi-mited from the modern "safe nd sane" Fourth of July, and it therere may be of interest for girls who are going to join these parties to know what is doing this year in outing blouses and hats.

Many contumes like that seen in the dence on beachen, at picnics and in trolley cars on Independence day, for the amarily cut lines skirt and soft little waist of batiste trimmed with rills represent a very popular costume are straight and narrow, fasming either directly down the center r a little to one side. Occasionally be straight lines are broken by tucks

A CYMPHONY IN CLUE AND THIS SUMMER'S OUTING GIRLL REVERS ON THE MIDDY BLOUSE THE OUTING HAT HAS A NEW

In wash suits the crare for having a problem of the linen, skirt of one color and coat of another obtains, as it fore, in the domain of all and have colors of suits. The domain of the lines of hemstitching outlining shoulder seams, yoke, and cuffs. The pattern has been used for this blouse, the skirt of one color and coat of another obtains, as it fore, in the domain of the uncut cotton velvet and broche, eponge or cotton weekle of navy blue taffets is tied in a suit that must be write atriped lines, and the coat of the same and are dressy enough for wear blouse is worn a paname sombrero blouses the Fourth of July picnic girl

Coarling which is exblue linen with revers and cuffs of the only way of freshening plain blue linen. Still another combination considered extremely snapThe outing blouse or shirt waist is a blouse world, and the one pictured is coquettish model that is conspicuous of plain white cotton volle with collar, for its simplicity, and gone is the cheap revers and pocket of Bulgarian emdominant note in the pattern, and the white panama outing hat has an un-derbrim of pink straw.

CATHERINE TALBOT.

And speaking of outing hats, this white panama outing hat has an un-straight yoke about the back, from year the fore and aft dip, as it is call- are some styles that the woman of wear a touch of some brilliant shade if which the material is gathered, and the ed, is the thing in a turned down brim. too, too solid flesh (she whose silhou- she desires to wear a color, illustrations. It is built of white linen, shape favored by college boys and should consider taboo. another new mode in outing millinery.

> brims of contrasting color. The hat in tume, and at least ten pounds of weight of solid proportions unless her thro the cut, of pure, white panama, for ex- are added. When the outfit includes a is long and graceful as the awan's ample, has an underbrim of the blue. blouse cut low at the neck and feet thing that is exceedingly rare. As and white batiste is embroidered in three shades of blue. Machine em-piece frocks have this season are both rection. for the woman who is unfashionably Moderation in all things, my dear atout. Indies, should be your alogan. Your and wear dull, quiet colors has solved fine your sartorial excursions to safe one of the most difficult problems of and sane grounds. Modish may be dress. She will make people forget her your apparel as your purse affords—size if she wears a dull tan or gray. A within limits.

looking confection trimmed with cheap broidery in shades of dull pink and THE present styles do not acknowl- black dress, usually considered so safe lace and embroidery heaped without old blue on a voile ground. Pink is the man" sartorially is non est, but there big as an elephant. A white dress will

Such an outing hat is pictured of flex- ette is not slim perhaps would be a A certain stout woman voiced the A blouse of this style is among the lible straw. This model suggests the more acceptable way of putting it) sentiments of her sisters by mouning at the neckwear counter of a smart other well dressed young fellows, and The most glaring of these "impossi- shop, "There's not a piece of frilly the trimming of the hat at the front is bles" is the checked skirt worn with a neckwear for the fat woman; there's coat of plain material. One-does see a nothing good looking for her!"

This hat accompanies a blouse of white lamentable number of stout women | Well, things are not so desperate as agarie cloth with the very fong. arrayed in this modish combination, it described, but the becoming neck dropped shoulder so fashionable now. Seems strange that their glasses do not ruches of tuile and face that soften the Quite a number of the shady brimmed panama outing hats have under- ently reduced about a foot by the cos- the back of the neck are not for milady shod in suede boots that always make don't, as you value your appearance a fat foot look pudgy the result is a wear gloves that are too tight. thing to make the angels weep. Of large a size is sloppy, so be sure, but course it goes without saying the skirt neat, comfortable fit solves the

> Another style for the stout woman to Then there's the question of hats, cost into the discard is the cutsway ef- Small models are the vogue this year, feet either in coat or frock. This ab- but could anything be funnier than rupt curve in the front of the coat ac- some of the tiny creations one sees centuates the wearer's size and makes perched above the full moon faces of her appear "as round as a tub." The the frankly fat woman? On the other long panel effects and the continental hand, a "picture" confection is just as coat talls which so many of the one great a sin committed in another di-

> The large woman who has been general makeup demands it, and your clever enough to subordinate her size friends will love you more if you con-

A Sleeping Screen

watch are within ready reach during substitute for the convenient stand is a small cretonne covered screen provided with pockets in which necessary articles may be tucked away. Such a thand in case of fire in the night cluttes horse, such as is sometimes and in the ROSES.

matching the hangings of the bedroom first treating the wood to a coat of white enamel. The pockets are attached to the inner side and in them may be tucked one's bedroom slippers. Son. and Caroline Testout a bright a small electric flashlight, a box of satisfy rose pink.

SMALL bedroom stand, on which safety matches, a handkerchief or o the night, must sometimes be omitted from the tiny apartment house bed-insomnia or the victim of insomnia or the victim of insomnia or the victim of the baby's milk. One woman who owns the necessary chairs. An excellent used in the nursery, or, if there is a direct draft, on the bed from a window, the screen may be a trifle higher—just high chough to protect the head of the sleeper without keeping out the air.

Cover the screen with cretonne coral red; the waite and pink killar-neys; Mme. Abol Chalenay, resy car-signs of wear, and then re-ture of linseed oil, turpentine and be rubbed with a piece of the gum immediately after they are used, and in the seawax, the proper proportion be about an ounce to a point of liquid. Bull the oil and then add the liber instead indefinitely. The respected indefinitely is neglected indefinitely.

has absorbed the polish.
Library tables of the craftsman valety may be treated in the same maner. First take particular care to rerove all the dust from tufted furniture; otherwise it will become streak. ed and blurred in time. Chairs upholstered with leather must be polished with a dressing to preserve the finished surface. For this purpose use me. Apply this with a piece of soft annel, and polish with another. This

Stain the faded finger tips by apply under the panama hat. ing the mixture with a small brush And there are always women ready sive—partly because it is a novelty pins or hair pins.

Regardless of statements to the if brushed with a fine brush after hirary, leather is not really hard each wearing.

specially when the cleaning No matter how costly traveling best in the proper manner, bags are, they will show wear within a short time. There are a few who obular in the admire this travel-stained appearance, somes, until now it can hardly be dissavoring of much globe-trotting, while many others prefer the neat, clean-looking bags. If shoe dressing of an excellent quality is applied to the bag of black seal, walrus or calf, it will portant piece of leather be made to appear like new. Then, s worn. To remedy this, use same result when used on articles mix with the eggs. qual quantities of white-of-egg and of tan leather. Care should be ob- Cut asparagus into 1-inch lengths; ater beaten together. Apply with a served to clean the bags before apply- put a layer of asparagus on the botting the dressing. Remove all stains tom of baking-dish, then a layer of and dust with benzine. Several apsauce, then layer of bread crumbs, etc., plications will be necessary if the having on top a layer of bread crumbs. traveling bag is badly worn. Each Put in a pan of warm water and bake time dry and polish before the part that a pan of warm water and bake time dry and polish before the next fiftees minutes. coat is applied.

Articles fashioned of white or tintention. Mission chairs ed leather can be cleaned with a piece of upholstered with of gum prepared for the purpose. ould be treated with a mix. Card cases or evening slippers should week in preserving its beauty.

the predicted exclusive reign of the small hat—at least for street wear—however, can be renovated with the preparation.

Some devotees, of course, remain true predictly at the finger tips, and this er. Some vell-lovers try to get around the fact that veits are uncomfortable and much used long before they by wearing an unusual veil, like the long and much used long before they are remainted to the predicted exclusive reign of the seaside.

Veil weather is coming back again in america, and with it a big showing in america, and with it a big showing of interesting weaves and designs on the part of the makers of veils.

The most interesting of the new veils are worn trimly and snugly fitted over the hat brim, and are then drawn over the face, slacked a little over the point of the slacked and suggesting the precisence. The precis the predicted exclusive reign of the her a small amount of India ink resorts—a litta vell that was lifted can women always like them. They nose and chin, and pulled in in folds with a half teaspoonful o folive oil, from the chir to the none and tied are called novelties. Like many new about the neck. They are held togethsather, and then allow the gloves to take up a fancy, no matter how and partly because it is well made. Unlike much that characterizes the o dry well before wearing. Black warm the weather, like the mystery The mesh is of rather heavy cotton present fashions, they are the epitome

RECIPES TRIED AND FOUND VERY SUCCESSFUL BY WOMEN OF HONOLULU

Eight recipes recommended by Mrs. Chester Livingston

BREADED ASPARAGUS large tin asparagus

2 lbs. butter.

1 teaspoonful salt, 1-2 pint bread crumbs.

Boil the eggs hard, remove the shell ns of the most beautiful books dry thoroughly, polish with a flannel and chop fine. Rub, the butter and flour, put on the stove and add milk,

INDIVIDUAL FISH LOAF

1-2 box gelatine. 1-2 cup cold water. 1 tablespoonful chopped carrot. 1 tablespoonful chopped onion.

pint water. Cover the gelatine with 1-2 cup cold in the summer. And when summer ed heavily with threads running par. They are as varied in design as in until she was 70, had never earned a sanctions the wearing of big hats the allel to each other, all in one direcon blocks of tomato aspic jelly with into a buttered pudding-dish and bake one hour in a moderate oven. Serve mayonnaise or tartar sauce. with hard or cream sauce.

DATE PUDDING 1-2 pound dates. 1-2 pounds nuts (walnuts). 1 cup sugar (white). 1 cup bread crumbs.

3 eggs. 2, teaspoons baking powder. Chop the dates and nuts, mix all tose the calf or morocco soon Tan shoe dressing produces the stir until boiling, and salt and pepper, gether, bake 20 minutes, and serve cold with whipped cream.

> WALNUT WAFERS 1 cup brown sugar.

1 cup chopped walnuts (floured). 2 eggs. 1-2 cup flour: 1 tablespoonful molasses.

Drop on a buttered pan a teaspoon at a time. Bake quickly and thor-CHOCOLATE BREAD PUDDING

2 cups stale bread crumbs. 4 cups scalded milk. 2 squares Baker's chocolate. 2-3 cup sugar.

cold water. Bring to a boil; add gela- late in saucepan placed over hot wa- and arrange in a baking-pan, tine, strain, add juice of one lemon, ter; add 1-2 sugar and enough milk Take 6 eggs, break and slip one into 1-2 teaspoonful salt and a little red taken from the bread and milk each potato case. Cover with grated pepper. Put alternate layers of this to make of consistency to pour; add cheese and buttered bread crumbs and and chopped salmon in individual to mixture with remaining sugar, salt, bake in a moderate oven until brown, molds. Put away to harden. Serve vanilla and eggs slightly beaten; turn and the egg set.

the eyes turough a little clearing of like patterns on various sorts of back- trimly and smoothly over the hat and grounds.

hough they be, refuse to wear them tulle-like fineness, and some are lintion, from end to end of the veiling. The preference is given to a design things, this novelty veiling is expender at the base of the hair with veil

e gloves will not wear so quickly |veils-heavy veils that showed only threads, woven together to form lace of neatness. If they are not drawn

BROWN BREAD 2 cups sour milk. 1 cup molasses.

1-2 teaspoonful salt. 4 cups whole wheat flour. 1 cup seeded raisins (floured). 1 level teaspoonful soda.

Mix milk, molasses, salt, flour, then add the soda already dissolved in a labor. But a bw years ago a woman them at 10 cents a glass. She bo little of the sour milk. Then the rais- did not receive this special training. the average sized jelly glass, which is Bake in a moderate oven for The first thing for a woman to do is when it was empty was returned. One ins. Bake in a moderate oven for about one hour and a half. Bake in to be practical. She must gather all day she made the lemon butter and baking-powder tins and fill each tin her courage together, discard all sen- the next the orange marmalade She not more than half full.

CORN AND TOMATOES Grate 1 dozen ears of cooked corn, and warm in a very little cream. Prepare a tomato jelly and line small molds with it; fill up with the corn, cover with jelly and set on ice to chill. Garnish with parsley.

BAKED POTATOES'AND EGGS Bake 6 potatoes. Remove the potatoes, mash and season. Use plenty of table top and rub until the leather time by spending an hour or two each bay leaves and a little celery in 1 pint.

Soak bread in milk, 2 tablespoonfuls of butter, salt, paprika and grating of nutmeg. Half time by spending an hour or two each bay leaves and a little celery in 1 pint.

hair, they are not smart.

Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. • All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Grove's signature is on each box suddenly thrown on their own re-sources. Of course, it all depends on the woman how she meets this sit-butter or orange marmalade. uation. Sometimes it develops the best that is in her; other times it has on us one afternoon and tell us that just the opposite effect. This is de-cidedly an age of specialties, and for this reason the average girl is train-ed along some definite line, which have put them on the market." "On gives her a certain knowledge which, the market!" We were sure that term if it becomes necessary for her to had been looked up. Anyway, she earn her own living, will yield her then and there began making these ample compensation for her time and two varieties of preserve and se then count up just how much it will 25 glasses a day, and therefore cost to supply not only necessities cleared $9 per week. but comfort as well. Then she must Frequently it is just some simple, consider just how much has she been homely product like a jelly or a spedoing and how much can she do. Then cirily good variety of cake or biscuit she must take account of her capa- that, if made and sold first to friends, bilities. I can hear her say: "I haven't then to others, that starts a woman any," or "I once might have taught music, but I am now all out of practice." Thi slast is probably true, and tice." as it may be 25 years since you stud- up, the larger the sale, led, your methods would likely be too antiquated to compete with more modoren ones. Now, while you may be never have thought about that have a distinctly commercial value and pre-sent possibilities beyond your wildest

To illustrate just what sort of But most women, devotees to veils | Some of the grounds are of almost | Lace vests, to be worn loosely with things I mean, I am going to tell you man that you always associated with lavender and olu lace. She lived in a tiny, old-fashioned house in a suburban town not 30 miles distant from design is not so much in favor as this Philadelphia. All she had in the world, with the exception of her home and its contents, she gave to a friend to invest, and, due to poor judgment, within less than a year she was penalless. She had a sister depending on her, a few years younger, which of course, was an added care.

All her life she had been in the habit of entertaining, not in a preten-tious way but in a way that made her PARIS MEDICINE CO. St. Louis. U. & home one of the most popular

We all know of women surrounded town. The sewing society always by all the comforts of home who, looked forward to their afternoon with owing to some unforeseen cause, are her, for they were sure to have some timent, and determine that the future devoted about three hours a day to will yield her all the comforts of the past. Next, she must go off quietly and in a manner take account of other cases the customers called for season with pepper, salt and butter stock. Find out just how much she them. She said she cleared 6 cents has left. If she is without anything, a glass, and she sold on an average

The head of the Woman's Trade Board of Boston has asked James J. utterly unfitted to teach music, there Hill for free transportation for 500 are, no doubt, many things that you New England women she has chosen in response to letters from Minne

A Palo Alto woman succ a self-imposed fast of 70 days' duration. She refused food be

